Descendants of Henry Tyler

Generation No. 1

1. HENRY¹ TYLER was born Abt. 1620 in Shropshire, England, and died Abt. 1672 in York County, VA. He married (1) MARY in England. She was born Abt. 1615 in England, and died Abt. 1653. He married (2) ANNE ARMSTEAD ORCHARD Abt. 1658. She was born Abt. 1628 in England, and died April 2, 1679 in York County, VA.

Notes for HENRY TYLER:

Henry Tyler of Shropshire, England was one of three brothers who settled in VA, MA, and CN. Henry, settled in Charles City, VA in 1652. In Vol. III, of the Virginia Land Register is the record of a Patent in Henry Tylers name dated Jan 7, 1652, locating 254 acres in Middle plantation, VA, due to him by and for transporting to this colony six persons. Henry is a descendant of Wat Tyler, according to G.C. Greer in his "Early Virginia Immigrants".

At June Court 1672, Ann Tyler his relic, (Henry), entered a record of Deed of Gift disposing of her separate estate among her three sons, Henry, John and Daniel. There were no heirs by his first wife Mary. The three children of Henry and Anne went on to have many descendants:

Henry Tyler stayed in VA and his line is the 10th President John Tyler's line. John Tyler the second son of Henry and Anne moved to Hanover, VA and his line of descendants migrated to North Carolina and later to South Carolina. This is my line of ancestry (Henry, John, Moses, Needham, Moses, John, Elisha, Moses, Mattie). Daniel Tyler, the third son of Henry and Anne, was reportedly captured by the Turks and never heard from again.

Notes for MARY:

First wife of Henry, died about 1653 and they had no children.

More About HENRY TYLER and MARY:

Marriage: England

Notes for ANNE ARMSTEAD ORCHARD:

Anne was the widow of John Orchard when she married Henry Tyler. After the death of Henry, Anne married Martin Gardiner.
More About HENRY TYLER and ANNE ORCHARD:

Marriage: Abt. 1658

Children of HENRY TYLER and ANNE ORCHARD are:

2. i. HENRY\(^2\) TYLER, b. Abt. 1660, York County, VA; d. December 15, 1729, York County, VA.

3. ii. JOHN TYLER, b. Abt. 1661, York County, Virginia; d. Abt. 1745, VA or NC.

iii. DANIEL TYLER, b. Abt. 1663, VA; d. Unknown, Algiers.

Notes for DANIEL TYLER:
Daniel was captured by the Turks and taken to Algiers and never heard from again.

Generation No. 2

2. HENRY\(^2\) TYLER (HENRY\(^4\)) was born Abt. 1660 in York County, VA, and died December 15, 1729 in York County, VA. He married ELIZABETH CHILES June 25, 1683 in York County, Virginia Colony. She was born Abt. 1666 in York County, VA, and died January 19, 1701/02 in York County, VA.

Notes for HENRY TYLER:

Henry's mother, Ann, had remarried after his father's death leaving the step-father to finally execute his father's will. In 1690, Henry and his brother John filed a petition in York Court to require Martin Gardner, to divide between them the property left by their mother to their brother Daniel, who had been carried off by the Turks to Algiers and had not been heard of for seven years. Henry Tyler leased his father's land at Middle plantation to Martin Gardner in return for one man servant and a house to be built.

Henry Tyler qualified as Sheriff, April 10, 1700 and again in 1702, he was Coroner in 1703, and Sheriff again in 1705.

An order in York Court dated June 25, 1683, mentions Henry Tyler as having married Elizabeth Chiles, daughter of Walter Chiles and granddaughter of Lt. Col. Walter Chiles. Elizabeth's mother was the daughter of John Page but there is no record of her name. But Col. John Page left a legacy and land to John Tyler, son of Henry and Elizabeth Tyler and calls him grandson.

Notes for ELIZABETH CHILES:

Elizabeth was a daughter of Mr. Walter Chiles and granddaughter of Lt. Col. Walter Chiles, her mother is thought to be the daughter of John Page but her name is unknown. Elizabeth may have died giving birth to her last child.

3. JOHN II TYLER (HENRY) was born Abt. 1661 in York County, Virginia, and died Abt. 1745 in VA or NC. He married MARY GARDINER, daughter of MARTIN GARDINER and UNKNOWN. She was born Abt. 1682 in York County, VA, and died Unknown.
Notes for JOHN TYLER:

Jan 23, 1685 John gave a receipt to Martin Gardiner, his guardian and stepfather, for the share given him by his mother's Deed, Anne Tyler. John Tyler married Martin Gardiner's daughter Mary and moved to Hanover, VA. John's line of descendants migrated to North Carolina, and later to South Carolina. John Tyler had two brothers, Henry and Daniel. Daniel was captured by the Turks and never heard from again. Henry and his descendants stayed in VA and several generations later his line produced the 10th President of the USA, John Tyler.

Notes for MARY GARDINER:

Mary was the daughter of Martin Gardiner from a previous marriage. Martin Gardiner married John Tyler's mother, Anne, after the death of his father Henry Tyler.

5. JOHN* TYLER (HENRY*, HENRY*) was born Abt. 1686 in York County, VA, and died May 2, 1727 in James City County, VA. He married ELIZABETH JARRETT. She was born Abt. 1693 in VA.

Notes for JOHN TYLER:

In his father Henry's will, it states, To John my grandchild, son of John Tyler deceased, and his daughters Joanna, Elizabeth, Mary and Edith, each of them a young negro of value 10 pounds money.

John was a student at William and Mary College in 1704. Under the will of John Page, who was the father of his grandmother, he was given a tract of land in the Powhattan swamp, James city and a legacy of fifty pounds.

In 1721, his negro slave, Priamus, was injured while firing the "great guns" on the anniversary of his majesty's coronation and John was paid 16 pounds sterling.
