

ALBUM
OF
ANNIE NIXON CUTRELL BENSON
11/18/1882-12/8/1957

(Not sure of how many revisions the album has seen; it is a very nicely bound album, but the pictures were earlier glued in an album with black pages. Some of the pictures of this album are no longer there as one can see where pictures have earlier been. And, the annotations on the original pictures do not all seem to have been done by Annie. Not sure of all of the history of the album from Annie to present. Mary Jane Cutrell Babb passed it on to Cindy Bordeaux.)

SOME PERSPECTIVE

(First a picture of Annie and her first husband taken at the Jamestown Exposition in Norfolk in 1907, followed by a couple pages of genealogy for us to have perspective.)

IN
REMEMBRANCE

Claudia Belle Cuthrell,

Born April 12, 1906.
Died Aug. 3, 1906.
Age 3 mos. 21 days.

Another little lamb has gone
To dwell with Him who gave:
Another little darling babe
Is sheltered in the grave.
God needed one more angel child
Amidst His shining band,
And so He bent with loving smile,
And clasped our darling's hand.

MRS. ANNIE C. BENSON OF FAIRFIELD SUCCUMBS

Funeral services for Mrs. Annie C. Benson, 74, of Fairfield, who died in Tayloe Hospital in Washington Sunday afternoon after a short illness, were held from the Fairfield Methodist Church Tuesday at 11 a.m., conducted by the Rev. Robert Bundy. Burial was in the Fairfield Cemetery.

The widow of the late J. M. Benson, she was born at Fairfield November 18, 1883, daughter of the late W. B. and Jane E. Ward Nixon. She was a member of the Fairfield Methodist Church.

Surviving are: three daughters Mrs. Leland Carawan of Key West, Fla., Mrs. A. A. Jessie of Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. John R. Swindell of Swan Quarter; one son Guy R. Cuthrell of Tampa, Fla. four step-daughters, Mrs. Guy Dunshee of Pantego, Mrs. Clinton Paul of Norfolk, Va., Mrs. Jack Simpkins of Newport News, Va. and Mrs. Charlie King of Richmond, Va.; two step-sons, Charles Benson and John Benson, both of Pantego; two sisters, Mrs. U. B. Fisher of Swan Quarter and Mrs. L. L. Lyon of Tampa, Fla.; and two brothers, Julian C. Nixon of Bayside, Va., and W. B. Nixon of Fairfield.

DEATHS

After long sickness Mr. J. S. Cutrell was called home to his reward July 12, about 7 o'clock. Previously he had two light strokes and the last one took him out in sudden death. For years he belonged to the Methodist church, at one time being a steward of the church. For a number of years—in fact, until he became unable—he kept store. He was a faithful father and husband, a good citizen and a man with many friends. He leaves to mourn his going his mother, three brothers and one sister, a widow and four children; also a host of friends and relatives.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Minga, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. E. R. Stewart of the Baptist church and Rev. Roe Harris of the Christian church. The Masons held services over his body at the grave. He was born on September 13, 1869, being almost 60 years of age.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to those who miss him.
