“KING'S MOUNTAIN and Its Heroes: History of the Battle of Kings Mountain....” By Lyman C. Draper, Marietta, Ga.:1954, pg 232-233

Benjamin was under Campbell and was pensioned 1832.

Isaac, James, and Thomas were born in Pennsylvania moved to Lincoln county, North Carolina in 1779, and were pensioned in Illinois. James was a captain, and the others were lieutenants.

Joseph, a captain under McDowell, was wounded. He was pensioned in Lincoln county, Kentucky.

Richard was a justice of Washington county, 1778-82, and it is probable that he was one of Sevier's officers at King's Mountain. He passed sentence on some tortes in 1778.

William was under Lacy. His pension declaration states that Colonel Williams was shot after the white flag was raised. He was pensioned 1833.

Isaac White, of Scotch-Irish parentage, was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania, in 1760; and migrated, with his elder brother Thomas, to Lincoln County, North Carolina, about 1779. Though young, James White was chosen a Captain, and his brother the Lieutenant of the company; and served at King's Mountain and Cowpens. In 1816, they removed to Bond County, Illinois, James dying in aged sixty-one years, and Thomas in 1824, at the age of seventy.
