FAMILY LEGEND - Rhodes Manuscript

RHODES FAMILY-England-Dwellers at a clearing. One who lived at the roadside.

Benjamin Rhodes -Johnston Co., NC -Jones Co.

The first settler of RHODES in Onslow Co. was Benjamin RHODES building his home along the New River. This river starts at the Atlantic Ocean, near Sneads Ferry and ends almost at Pink Hill, N.C., later it was Onslow Co. changed from Johnston Co., N.C. Benjamin RHODES was born about 1699-1700, cannot find any other records of him, where he came from or who he married, but later in 1731 he moved to Mills Creek, he tried to change his membership to the Free Will Baptist Church, he could not under the New River Constitution, so he remained faithful to his old church when he died. I have no record, but he had two sons Henry Rhodes, born 1720 and James RHODES, born 1723, in Johnston Co., N.C.
