

JOB WARRICK FAMILY NEWSLETTER

Editor:

Morris Warrick, Jeffrey and Kathy Cooke

Special thanks to Rose and Allan Lane and all families that wrote in articles. August 25, 1996

Job Warrick, Sr.'s Children: Elizabeth, Benjamin, Josiah, Lewis, William Henry, Sallie, Nancy, Job Jr., John Thomas, Hezekiah, Wiley, Ezekial, James, Mary Jane, Alsey, Council, and Sallie.

JUNNIE V. WARRICK - LEWIS B. WARRICK - WILLIAH H. WARRICK
(Father) (Grandfather) (Great Grandfather)

(Information provided by Sally Warrick Edwards)

Cousin, Dorothy³ Jensen Joralemon, from Ravena, NY, daughter of Lossie Warrick Jensen, visited three weeks with our family from April 9-30, 1996. We enjoyed her company and took a overnight trip to Atlantic Beach, NC. The weather was chilly, but we enjoyed picking up seashells. We also attended the Hudson Family Reunion on April 14, 1996 held in Turkey, NC. Springtime there was beautiful with the Dogwoods and Azaleas in bloom. On April 23, 1996 we took a trip to Wilmington, NC, and visited our cousin, Tempie W. Rivenbark (daughter of LeRoy Warrick). She is the best cook in Wilmington. We had a "feast". Her daughter (Jinny), son (Gene), and grandson (Will) visited with us. We enjoyed the visit with our loved ones and are looking forward to next year.

(Grandson) Christopher Reuben Edwards graduated from South Lenoir High School in Deep Run, NC, on June 7, 1996. He has enrolled and plans to attend Lenoir Community College.

(Granddaughter) Shawn Jane Edwards is a member of a horse club. She and horse "Rhee" have won lots of ribbons and trophies, also points for the horse. She enjoys the riding club and taking care of her horse.

JESSE AND CHARLIE WARRICK FAMILY

(Information provided by Cathy C. Thompson)

Deanna Marie Lewis and Chris Hoffmann were married August 10, 1966. Deanna is the granddaughter of the late Eunice and Nolan Clark and daughter of Cathy and Harold Thompson. They will live in Greenville, NC.

Harold and I took a trip to New Mexico for the All American Horse Race. Harold's son, Sammy Thompson, is a professional jockey. He was the youngest jockey in 1995 to ever ride in the All American Race. We will be going back to Ruidoso, New Mexico, again this year. Hope we can be in the top three this year!

Son, Michael Lewis, graduated from Clayton High School this year.

MATTIE EDWARDS BRASWELL FAMILY

I'm the only living member of the nine children of Dan and Lola Warrick Edwards. Albert died on June 21, 1994, at the age of 88. Ralph died on April 23, 1994, at the age of 69 with lung cancer. I'm thankful to be able to keep my yard and garden during the season with some help from my family. I have a daily routine of walking and attend Johnston County Senior Games where I received a gold medal for walking for the ninth year, with medals for other games. I travel with the Traveler's Club from Clayton and Johnston County Extension Homemaker's Club as much as possible. We recently had a two day trip to Myrtle Beach, SC. I plan to attend camp at Cragmont in Black Mountain for the fifteenth year during the first week in August.

I was honored to receive the Life Membership Award from Rains Cross Roads Woman's Auxiliary at Western District Auxiliary Convention in April of this year.

Freddie, oldest son of Robert and Mattie, recently returned from a trip across country. In June, Freddie rode his motorcycle through fourteen states and covered 7,500 miles. The trip was organized to celebrate the seventieth anniversary of Route 66, the first highway to connect the U.S. East and West.

Brent, son of Freddie and the late Janet Lewtor Braswell, was married April 20 to Maia Snitki at Green Level Baptist Church, Apex, NC. Freddie continues to grow Christmas trees at his farm in the mountains with his sister, Faye, and family.

FANNIE WARRICK LANE FAMILY
(Information provided by: Alan Lane)

Nicholas Adams was born to Stan and Lynn Adams. Lynn is the oldest daughter of Alan Lane. Lynn has two other children, Conner who is 5, and Cailey who is 4. Stan and Lynn live in Rosewood.

Crystal Leanne Lane, middle daughter of Alan Lane, married Eric Weeks in September of 1995. They reside on Old Grantham Road in Goldsboro. Crystal received her Master's Degree in Speech Pathology in May, 1996.

(Information provided by Tom (Sherrill) and Christine Lane)

Tom is the grandson of Fannie Warrick Lane. Sherri Lane, daughter of Tom and Christine, was married in October of 1992 to Glen Paules in Tampa, Florida.

In 1992, Christine and I took six months off and went on a motor home trip. We visited Canada, Alaska, and the Western U.S. It was an adventure of a life time. In 1995, I started a new company, Lane & Lane Marketing which deals with health and life insurance.

In 1996, we took a seven day cruise to the Carribean.

LOLA WARRICK EDWARDS
(Information provided by Edna E. Smith)
daughter of Albert & Lucile Edwards

Births: Linda Rhodes Smith, daughter of Mickey and Jackie Smith.
Granddaughter of Edna E. Smith

Major Life Events: Edna retired from Johnston Memorial Hospital on June 30, 1995. She traveled the New England states in 1995 and visited New York in 1996.

Her son, Mickey, is a paramedic who recently transferred from Harnett County to Wake Medical Paramedics.

DECENDANTS OF WILLIAM HENRY WARRICK FIFTH CHILD OF JOB WARRICK, SR.

News from Studie Belle Sandford

Born January 13, 1902. Now a resident of Brian Center located on Wayne Memorial Drive in Goldsboro. One of nine children, Studie still has that beautiful smile, and her eyes light up when she sees someone shw knows. She can not hear well which makes it difficult to find out about her family. Her daughter, Trudie, is very devoted to her mother and visits at least twice a day. Jerry from Hampton, Virginia visits often. Jerry and Lois have two sons. Trudy lives at the home place, 110 S. Audubon Avenue. (Information provided through conversation Morris Warrick had with Trudi on 7-15-96). William Henry Warrick, Studie's father, died of smallpox and is buried in Elmira, New York, at National Woodlawn Cemetery.

DECENDANTS OF JOB WARRICK, JR.
SON OF JOB WARRICK, SR.
(Provided by Morris Warrick)

I ran into Eugene Stevens Warrick and Barbara, his wife, at the Winn-Dixie on Wayne Memorial Drive in Goldsboro. As of July 29, Eugene is a minister and attended Campbell University and Fruitland Bible College. Eugene and Barbara have done a lot of mission work. They have two children Gena Kay Warrick Fisher and Joby Stevens Warrick. He now works and writes articles for the News & Observer in Raleigh, NC, and has written and revodnized for his articles. I invited Eugene to start attending the Bizzelle Grove Job Warrick Reunion held the fourth Sunday in August every year.

TIPS ON WHERE TO FIND

The North Carolina Genealogical Society was chartered on June 19, 1974, by the Secretary of State and was formally organized on July 1, 1974. The list of charter members include Mary Williamson Warrick, wife of Woodly C. Warrick, both deceased. The North Carolina Genealogical Library in Raleigh is a treasury of family heritages. Others are North Carolina and Southern Historical Collections at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and William R. Perkins Manuscript Department at Duke University and your County Register of Deeds office.

DREADED FLU OF 1919

All over the County lots of families lost their loved ones due to the great flu epidemic. We know that the flu epidemic. We know that the flue epidemic of 1919 took the life of Henry Westbrook on January 25, 1919. He married LUDie Warrick on November 17, 1917. They had one son, Henry Westbrook, Jr. Ludie then married Berton Pritchard on March 10, 1923. Henry never saw his father.

Jasper E. Warrick, son of James Warrick, married Minnie E. Warrick. They had nine children. Dorris and Morris, twins, never saw their father. He was a victim of the flu epidemic. Morris was the first twin born, Doris came second.

JAMES WARRICK DESCENDANTS

NEWS FROM FOREST AND PAT EDWARDS

Pat is the daughter of Fred J. Warrick and Frances of Portsmouth, Virginia. Pat and her husband live in Rutherfordton, NC. They have two daughters, Jennifer and Rachel. Fred is the son of Jasper E. Warrick and Minnie.

reports that their daughter, Jennifer, has just returned from Russia as a foreign exchange student. In February, eighteen students from Russia visited eighteen students in the United States. In return, eighteen students from the United States visited Russia in June. All of the students were from Rutherfordton, NC. Towns visited in Russia were Moscow, St. Petersburg, and Tuanoob. Jennifer will be going to college in Charleston, SC, this fall. Pat and Jennifer are leaving on a bus trip for Niagara Falls. Forrest, Pat's husband, is outnumbered having three females in the family but makes out alright.

News on the Decendants of Anna Warrick Dunbar Family

Anna was born on June 22, 1874 and died on December 26, 1920. Anna was the second child of James (Jim) Warrick and Mary Virginia Wise. Anna married Henry Dunbar and they in turn had four children Manice, Margaret, Walter, and Albert who are all deceased. Albert passed away on January 24, 1992. His wife, Matha are a prominent family living in the Grantham Community. They are living on the original James (Jim) Warrick Farm bought from Lula Edwards Warrick and Joe S. Warrick, both deceased.

Albert and Matha had six children. They are Earl, Bettie Lou, Anna Faye, Brenda Mae, and Gary Laws. After a phone conversation held with Earl, he advised that he and his wife have been operating Earl's Snack Service on wheels for thirty years. They are out every day serving snacks to their customers. He and his wife have two children, Albert and Earl Jr. Earl Jr. has just returned from Korea and will return to Fort Bragg for his military career.

J.M. WARRICK, JR. NEWS

Jackie Warrick is the son of Morris and Dorothy Warrick of Goldsboro. Jackie is a major with the Goldsboro Police Department where he has been employed since 1968. He and his wife, Sheila, have been married for 27 years. They have two children, Jay, who is an EMT in Kinston, and Jenny, who is a rising Senior at Barton College in Wilson.

GREETINGS FROM THE MARION SYKES FAMILY

Marion and Jennifer live in Mount Olive, NC, and have three children. They are Lee, Christopher, and Stephanie. Jennifer is the daughter of Dorothy (Dottie) Warrick Cooke and Harry C. Cooke, II. Her grandparents are Morris Warrick and Dorothy Horton Warrick. Marion and Jennifer operate the Mount Olive Livestock Market, Inc. with the Sykes family. Lee and Christopher enjoyed summer camp in the North Carolina mountains. Stephanie went to a summer dance workshop.

GREAT GRANDFATHER AND GRANDMOTHER
(By: Morris Warrick)

They delight when they see their great grandchildren who know God's love and share it with others. Congratulations to the parents of my grandchildren and they who know that to "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it" Proverbs 22:6. Pictured below are our great grandchildren, from left: Christopher Sykes, Lee Sykes, and Stephanie Sykes. Also pictured is two year old Ashley Cooke, daughter of Harry Cooke, III and Meg Cooke of Greenville, NC.

