LOOKING BACK

Just looking back today and thinking about Allen Lane and what a special person he was. Allen had so much love for the Job Warrick Reunion and for its continuation. Allen served as President on the original Warrick Grave Committee and other important duties during the years. Allen's special efforts to get news from the descendents was appreciated last year.

Again, looking back to the 1996 reunion Sunday, I went to Wayne Memorial Hospital on Saturday for gall bladder pains. I intended to give out the newsletter on Sunday. As I saw people, I gave them the 1996 newsletter, and we still have a few left.

JOB WARRICK REUNION NEWSLETTER

To continue the newsletter for 1998, everything is news. Weddings, special events, marriages, trips, nice things about the children, funerals, awards, honors, and scholarships. It would be better for us if you would type these news items in order for the copies to be easier read. Jeff and Cathy Cooke and myself thank you. Please send information to Morris Warrick, 1009 Evergreen Avenue, Goldsboro, NC, 27530.

OUR GRATITUDE

Our thanks to Rev. Tommie Lane for his cooperation in sending the graveside memorial material for those who could not attend. Please read and you might get a copy from some of us who have access to a copy machine.

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven -
A time for sowing,
a time for reaping;
A time for sharing,
a time for caring.
A time for loving,
a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for parting.
You have made everything
beautiful in its time
For everything You do remains forever.

ALAN C. LANE

PRINCETON — Alan Cade Lane, 55, died Monday at home.

A graveside service will be conducted Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Evergreen Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Lane was born in Johnston County and was the son of the late Archie Caid and Annie Belle Little Lane. He was a member of Parrish Memorial Baptist Church.

He is survived by his wife, Rose Cooke Lane; a son, Chuck Lane of Princeton; three daughters, Lynn Adams of Rosewood, Crystal Weeks of Goldsboro and Brittney Lane of the home; two stepsons, Jeff Massey of Rosewood and Benjamin Massey of Princeton; a brother, Tom S. Lane of New Port Richey, Fla.; two sisters, Rose Rackley of Smithfield and Margaret Thigpen of Pikeville; and eight grandchildren.

The family will receive friends tonight from 7 until 8:30 at Parrish Funeral Home in Princeton.

Deaths

SUDIE W. SANDFORD

Sudie Warrick Sandford, 94, died Friday at Brian Center.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. The Rev. James E. Martin III will officiate. Burial will be in Willow Dale Cemetery.

Mrs. Sandford was born in the Grantham community and was the daughter of the late Lewis B. and Sallie Hudson Warrick. A graduate of King's College in Raleigh, she worked as a secretary for many years and she and her husband, the late Howard M. Sandford, managed the Coffee Shop at the old Goldsboro Motor Hotel for six years. She was the bookmobile librarian for Wayne County Public Library from 1958 until her retirement in 1967. Following retirement she filled her days with volunteer service for the Girl Scouts, Wayne County Senior Citizens Program, Volunteers in Education, Howell Child Care Center and Wayne Memorial Hospital. She was named Outstanding Woman of the Year by the Goldsboro Jaycettes in 1976.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church where she had served as a Sunday school teacher and a deacon, being the third woman elected to that office by the church.

She also was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, Home Rebekah Lodge #106, and the Order of the Eastern Star.

She is survived by a daughter, Trudy Sandford of Goldsboro; a son, Jerry M. Sandford of Hampton, Va.; a sister, Ludie Pritchard of Kingston, N.Y.; two grandsons, Phillip Sandford and Jeffrey Sandford; and two great-grandsons, Grayson Sandford and Jordan Sandford.

The family will receive friends Saturday from 7 until 9 at Seymour Funeral Home.

Memorial donations may be made to the First Presbyterian Church, 1101 E. Ash St., Goldsboro, 27530.
